THE NATIONAL PUPIL DATABASE (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education (DfE) and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required to pass information about our pupils to the DfE under Regulation 5 and Schedule 1 of The Education \(Information About Individual Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2013 as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD.

This information will, in turn, then be made available for use by the Local Authority who, under strict information sharing protocols and policies, may also be required to share this information with other public sector partners such as other Local Authorities or local Children Centre.

To find out more about the National Pupil Database please see the following web link: -

- Conducting research or analysis.
- Producing statistics.
- Providing information, advice or guidance.

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- Who is requesting the data.
- The purpose for which it is required.
- The level and sensitivity of data requested.
- The arrangements in place to store and handle the data.

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

We do this via the DfE's 'School to School' (S2S) secure data transfer website. This also acts as a temporary information depository where a pupil has left us and the destination is not known to us. Any paper-based data is also passed on to the new school.

THE NHS

Information will only be passed to the NHS where we have a legal/statutory obligation to do so or where it is fully anonymous and cannot identify individuals, to the extent of no longer being personal data. Where the NHS otherwise require personal data for the provision of a service or research, Parental/Carer and/or pupil consent will always be sought on a case-by-case basis.
