INTRODUCTION

Careers education, information and guidance (CEIAG) is an essential part of the support we offer to pupils at New Rush Hall School (NRHS). Effective career support can help to prepare young people for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of life; it can help them make decisions and manage transitions as learners and workers. As options for young people become more varied and complex, it is vital that we support them to develop the knowledge and skills they need to make informed choices for their future. As a result, the careers programme has a whole school remit designed to complement the rest of the school curriculum with a specific focus of meeting the needs of young people within a special school setting.

This policy statement sets out the school's arrangements for managing the Careers Education Information and Guidance (CEIAG) offer to pupils at the school for the purpose of giving information about the providers education or training offer. This complies with the school's legal obligations under Section 42B of the Education Act 1997.

PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

Pupils do not make career decisions in isolation and Parents/Carers can have a substantial impact, as well as a clear interest in the right outcomes for their child. NRHS is keen to foster Parental/Carer involvement in the careers programme, wherever possible.

Parents/Carers are invited into school to discuss their child's progress during Parents Evenings. They are also invited to meet with the CEIAG Co-ordinator if their child would like them to. In readiness for these events, pupils' career aspirations are collected by CEIAG Co-ordinator to allow discussions around progress relating to next steps and career planning.

Representatives of the careers team, as well as education and training providers, attend events for specific year groups.

Parents/Carers are kept up to date with career-related events and activities affecting their child. With the pupil's agreement, a copy of the action plan from 1-1 careers meetings will be sent home. Parents/Carers are also welcome to contact the CEIAG Co-ordinator at school, should they have any questions or concerns.
