Higher Level Teaching Assistant

LBR 5 Scale point 12 - 15

New Rush Hall is a special school for children experiencing social, emotional and/or mental health difficulties (SEMH), many of which present challenging behaviour.

As a result of looking to expand our current offer and an increase to pupil numbers, we have a vacancy for a Higher Level Teaching Assistant (HLTA). You will be working alongside teachers in supporting children with their learning and behaviour.

If you are resilient, calm, have a good sense of humour, can use your initiative and are able to withstand challenging behaviour, we would like to hear from you. We expect candidates to have a good standard of literacy.

New Rush Hall School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS check.

Applications will be considered as and when received and interviews may take place during the period of this advert, should strong candidates apply.

We can offer you:

- The opportunity to be part of a supportive, child focused team of staff with a community feel.
- A highly rewarding job with no risk of boredom
- A present SLT with an open door policy
- A well structured staff wellbeing offer
- Career progression and extensive CPD Programme
- Opportunities for additional responsibility and promotion

If you want a greater insight into what your day will look like at the school feel free to view this recent Sky News report.
